

U.S. Department of Energy Provides $20 Million for Domestic Advanced Nuclear Technology Projects

July 10, 2018

DOE has selected two companies to receive GAIN technology development vouchers in this second review cycle. The companies selected are Yellowstone Energy (Knoxville, TN) in the amount of $160,000, and ThorCon US (Stevenson, WA) in the amount of $400,000.

Read Entire Announcement

DOE Launches New Lab Partnering Service

July 10, 2018

Online Access Point Provides Unprecedented Access to National Lab Researchers and Information

WASHINGTON, D.C. –Today, the U.S. Department of Energy (DOE) officially launched the Lab Partnering Service (LPS), an on-line, single access point platform for investors, innovators, and institutions to identify, locate, and obtain information from DOE's 17 national laboratories. This tool will provide industry with a more efficient way to harness technical expertise and intellectual property housed at DOE's labs.

Read Entire Announcement

Energy Department Invests $64 Million in 29 States in Advanced Nuclear Technology

June 18, 2018

The U.S. Department of Energy (DOE) today announced nearly $64 million in awards for advanced nuclear energy technology to DOE national laboratories, industry, and U.S. universities in 29 states. In total, DOE's Office of Nuclear Energy selected 89 projects for funding for nuclear energy research, facility access, and crosscutting technology and infrastructure development.

Read Entire Announcement

Innovative Leadership with INL's Dr. Rita Baranwal

In 2018, INL's Women in Leadership (WIL) council is focused on the theme "Purposeful leadership: INnovate, INspire, INfluence." Throughout the year, the council will address the three components via videos, symposiums, webinars, feature stories, etc. In the last of three videos, Dr. Rita Baranwal, Gateway for Accelerated Innovation in Nuclear (GAIN) director, discusses how innovation impacts leadership and the laboratory.

View youtube video

Titans of Nuclear podcast featuring Rita Baranwal, Director, GAIN Program

Titans of Nuclear is a podcast featuring interviews with experts throughout the field of nuclear energy. Host Bret Kugelmass is a climate change thought leader & champion of nuclear energy. This episode features INL's Rita Baranwal.

Rita Baranwal

If you have a regulatory question for NRC, please see the GAIN Regulatory Tab to submit your question.