Operations Manager

Holly Powell serves as GAIN's operations manager, where she is responsible for contracting, budgeting, accounting and strategic planning.

She also leads specific areas within GAIN, one of which is the management of the Legacy Document Projects. This entails interfacing with industry to determine their legacy document needs; working with contacts within the DOE Laboratory Complex to locate and review the documents; facilitating document acquisitions; working export control and public release issues with the labs and DOE headquarters; and, ultimately, providing the documents to the nuclear industry.

Holly also leads the technical review process for the GAIN NE Voucher Program. This includes managing voucher proposals and panel review logistics; interfacing with the voucher review team and voucher project leads at all the labs; capturing and analyzing voucher metrics; and administering the final reporting process.

Holly is a member of the Project Management Institute. She has an MBA from Idaho State University and a BA in Journalism from Brigham Young University.
